

b. co-workers?

c. immediate supervisor or church leadership?

6. How do you respond to criticism, especially when you feel it is unjustified?

ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT

7. What did you enjoy studying the most in your previous education? Why?

8. What did you enjoy studying the least? Why?

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

9. What is or are your spiritual gift(s) and how did you determine this?

10. What are your special skills, talents, and abilities?

11. Describe some of your recent leadership experiences in ministry.

12. Based on these experiences, what areas of leadership need more development?

13. IGSL's program includes faculty mentoring students in the context of ministry. Are you willing to be trained and mentored in this way? Yes No If not, please explain:

14. What are your expectations related to a faculty mentoring you (i.e., in what ways do you hope they will be able to help you)?

MINISTRY DEVELOPMENT

15. How much time, on average, do you regularly spend per week in the following activities:

- a. Personal Bible study _____ hours
- b. Private prayer _____ hours
- c. Ministry and church prayer meetings _____ hours
- d. Personal evangelism _____ hours
- e. Teaching or preaching (including preparation time) _____ hours
- f. Ministry administration and leadership meetings _____ hours

16. Give us examples of how you have applied biblical truths in your particular situation the past 6 months.

17. How do you communicate biblical principles to others (home, work, and personal ministry)?

18. What do you see as important needs and issues in your culture (country or people group) and ministry setting? What have you done to address these issues?

19. As an IGSL student, you will be required to maintain a regular field ministry of evangelism and discipleship with specific requirements that must be accomplished in order to graduate. Are you willing to undertake these responsibilities even if they are different from your previous way of doing ministry?

Yes No If no, please explain:

20. Tell us about a recent evangelistic experience. With whom did you talk to? How did you explain the gospel to them?

21. What method(s) do you prefer to use in doing evangelism?
22. Do you object to using evangelistic tools like the Four Spiritual Laws booklet? Yes No
If yes, please explain:
23. Do you have any burden for reaching other people groups outside your own? Yes No
If yes, name the people group(s):
24. What are you doing in your church or ministry to educate your members regarding world mission?
25. Are the leaders of your home church, denomination, or the ministry organization with which you are affiliated in full agreement with your enrollment as a student? Yes No
If no, please explain the nature of the disagreement.
26. If you are in vocational ministry, what arrangements have been made regarding your responsibilities in order to allow you time to study at IGSL?

OTHER ISSUES

27. Describe any factors related to your family situation or marital status that could have a bearing on your application and/or pursuit of this degree. It is a policy of IGSL not to allow spouses or children below the age of 16 to be left behind in another city or country. International couples are expected to practice family planning (birth control) during their time at IGSL. For more information, read IGSL's Policy for International Couples and Families.
28. For singles: If you are in a relationship, when are you planning to get married? Are you planning to get married while studying at IGSL?
29. Do you (or any member of your immediate family) have any physical conditions that require medical treatment? Yes No If yes, kindly explain the nature of the medical condition.
30. If there are additional comments you would like to make, or concerns and questions you would like to raise, state them below. Use the back of this page if you need additional space.